To Whom I May Concern,

I'd like to extend a recommendation on behalf for Taj Cohen. He is and excellent worker who exhibits talent as an email developer and designer. He's also very friendly and easy to work with. He was always an excellent member of our team.

As Taj and I started working together, it became clear that he was open minded, takes direction really well, and learns quickly. We were continuously asked to make changes in short amounts of time, and there were never any complaints, just execution of the job. Taj proved time and time again that he performs well with timelines, and with rapidly changing design requests. These traits make working with Taj an enjoyable and successful experience.

I highly recommend Taj as an email developer and as a team member to any growing email marketing team. I am confident that you find Taj as an invaluable addition to your team. Feel free to contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Mark Davidson
